ANEMKI WAJIW

Welcome to our May Newsletter!

Spring has finally started to feel like, well... spring! With the sunshine returning and the snow behind us (hopefully for good), our community is blooming with new events, programs, and opportunities to connect.

In this edition, you'll find important updates including a Save the Date for our 2025 Graduation Dinner, upcoming workshops, Band Member recognitions, and details on the Casino Rama Education Awards.

Spring joke of the month:

*Why was the gardener so excited for Spring?
Because he was ready to turnip the beet!*

In this newsletter you can expect:

Education Awards

Honouring the Graduates of 2025

We are proud to celebrate the incredible accomplishments of our FWFN graduates—Grade 8, Grade 12, and Post-Secondary students—who have worked hard to reach this exciting milestone. Your perseverance, dedication, and commitment to learning are inspiring to our entire community.

Don't forget to Save the Date for the FWFN Graduation Dinner on July 25th from 6:00–8:00 PM. Graduates and one guest are invited to attend. Registration is required by June 27th, 2025.

To register, please email one of the following:

- postsecondary@fwfn.com
- myra@fwfn.com
- education@fwfn.com

Post-Secondary and Grade 12 graduates must submit a copy of their diploma.

Casino Rama Funds Education Awards

In addition to our annual recognition, Fort William First Nation offers Casino Rama Education Awards to further celebrate student achievement. These awards are separate from the FWFN Graduation Awards and focus on academic excellence.

- Open to all Highschool and Post-Secondary FWFN Members graduating in 2024/2025
- Awards go to the top three academic averages in each category
- Application deadline: July 31st, 2025

Applications will be available on the Membership Portal, Hawk App, or for pickup at the FWFN Administrative office.

Band Member Recognition

Helen is a proud Kwe from Fort William First Nation, showcasing her passion for the land through her birch bark art and sugar bush work. Her meaningful creations from wigwas reflect her vision and dedication.

Cindy Bannon nominated her niece, Helen Pelletier, for her community work, expressing pride in her accomplishments.

Claudia Legarde is an original Band Member of FWFN, an elder, and a lifelong advocate for justice and healing. With over 26 years of service as a Criminal/Family Court Worker, she has supported Indigenous people through the justice system, founded key community organizations, and advocated restorative justice. Claudia's dedication continues to uplift and empower those who need it most.

Nominated by her sister, Monica LeGarde.

Savannah Upton, an original FWFN Band Member from the Piska family, is a dedicated mother of four, graduate of Confederation College's Community Advocacy program, and entrepreneur of Yellowbird. She works at the Thunder Bay Indigenous Friendship Centre, supporting Indigenous people in the Indigenous Peoples Court. Savannah is deeply committed to restorative justice and proudly represents FWFN by uplifting others and breaking cycles through compassion and advocacy.

Nominated by Claudia LeGarde.

Nominate a Band Member!

Do you know someone who deserves recognition for their contributions to the community?

To nominate a Band Member, please provide:

- A brief description of who they are, what they are being recognized for, and why you are nominating them.
- A photo of the nominee or a photo showcasing their contribution to the community.

All nominations must be submitted via email to KaijaMacKay@fwfn.com.
