

The Criminal Injuries Compensation Board (CICB)

2005

The Criminal Injuries Compensation Board (CICB) is an independent agency that awards compensation to the victims of violent crime that resulted in personal injury or death as defined by the Compensation for Victims of Crime Act. Compensation may be awarded where a Criminal Code of Canada offence has been committed in the Province of Ontario. Offences involving motor vehicles are excluded unless the vehicle was used as a weapon. Applicants may receive compensation to cover expenses including the following:

- Expenses actually and reasonably incurred resulting from the victim's injury or death.
- Emergency expenses resulting from a personal injury or death, such as medical expenses, funeral expenses generally up to a maximum of $6,000 and interim counseling generally up to $5,000.
- Loss of wages generally to a maximum of $250.00 per week, as a consequence of the total or partial disability affecting the victim's capacity to work.
- Financial loss to the dependants of a deceased victim.
- Pain and suffering.
- Maintenance of a child born as a result of a sexual assault.

Personal loss and property damage are excluded under the Act. To obtain more information and/or an application form, please contact:

Criminal Injuries Compensation Board
439 University Avenue, 4th Floor
Toronto, Ontario
M5G 1Y8
Toll-free: 1-800-372-7463
Toronto Calling Area: 416-326-2900

Source: Ministry of the Attorney General website
<http://www.attorneygeneral.jus.gov.on.ca/english/about/vw/cicb.sp>